

RATIONALE FOR EXECUTIVE ORDER 25-17-18

Adi Rajiv

February 6th, 2018

As a dedicated member of the University of Akron community, Adi will be an incredible asset to the Executive Branch and Undergraduate Student Government serving as Co-Diversity Coordinator. Adi has a passion to see that all students feel welcome and accepted at The University of Akron. His desire and commitment to promote equality and inclusion is admirable, and will aid him in his service in this capacity. I believe Adi will play a vital role in our team this semester as we work towards #UnitingUA. So it is without hesitation that Vice President Barry and I do bring this appointment before the Senate and ask for your affirmative vote.

Respectfully,

Taylor Bennington
Student Body President

Andrew Barry
Student Body Vice President

RATIONALE FOR EXECUTIVE ORDER 26-17-18

Christopher Thomas

February 6th, 2018

As a dedicated member of the University of Akron community, Christopher will be an incredible asset to the Executive Branch and Undergraduate Student Government serving as Director of Student Involvement. Christopher has been an active member of the senate, where he has advocated on behalf of our organizations growing outreach initiatives. His service in multiple leadership roles in student organizations has shown he is capable of directing and organizing teams, fostering the completion of projects from start to finish, and empowering those under his leadership. He will be an excellent Director of Student Involvement and a great addition to our team. So it is without hesitation that Vice President Barry and I do bring this appointment before the Senate and ask for your affirmative vote.

Respectfully,

Taylor Bennington
Student Body President

Andrew Barry
Student Body Vice President
